ANTHONY MACHINE CELEBRATES 75 YEARS OF PRECISION MACHINING A LEGACY OF TRUSTED PARTNERSHIPS

SAN ANTONIO, TX Anthony Machine, the largest precision machine shop in South Texas, is celebrating its 75th anniversary. Founded as D.S. Anthony & Sons in 1946, the company has been a pillar withing San Antonio's industrial corridor. Initially serving primarily the aggregate and energy sectors in South Texas, their clientele has expanded to include the Transportation, Valve & Petrochemical, Defense and Aerospace industries worldwide.

"We have an extraordinarily loyal customer base because we take the time to understand their needs, then provide a solution to those needs. Our customers know us and trust us, and we have invested in equipment and infrastructure that has allowed us to expand our capabilities and service new industries," said Steve Fraunhofer, V.P. of Sales, who is celebrating his 36th anniversary with the company.

"In its 75-year history, the company has weathered wars, globalization, financial crises, recessions and now a pandemic. I think it's safe to say, we are a resilient company with an incredibly strong foundation and an amazing team of committed employees," says Eugene Ponomarev, General Manager.

Anthony Machine will celebrate their legacy in San Antonio with anniversary activities and events throughout the year.
